Summary: A new hero has arrived in Jump City! She needs to keep her powers a secret from the Teen Titans before her livelyhood is threatened. Slade wants to use her powers for evil, she just wants to goof off with them.

1. Chapter 1

Powerpuff and the Pauper

Chapter 1: Meet the Powerpuff

She decided it would be a good idea to go outside in the middle of the night. Jump City was a particularly safe city, right? Surely, she wouldn't get hurt, right? Not with the Teen Titans around.

"_Be safe, Mama," Said a little girl before the mother headed out for a late night shopping task. The mother nodded and closed the door behind her, held her breath and continued walking to the nearest mini mart. _

_Not even ten steps were taken before she was jumped, and a group of large men in dark clothing that carried weapons threatened her.

"_Give us your bag, ya' old hag!" Said one with a thick northern accent. He had a thick stench of alcohol in his breath, and it made the mother's stomach curl._

She held the bag up to the man who took his sweet, sweet time getting to it before they heard a young voice say,

"_NOT THIS TIME, FUCKER." She swung two katanas at the group before landing in front of the old lady, a calming violet purple descending from her boots. _

_The girl decked out in purple unsheathed her katanas again and swung at the largest man, making him duck and grab her leg. _

She used one of the rocket lights attached to her foot and burnt the man's hand, then he cried out in pain, letting go of her leg to cradle his wrist that she burnt.

_Using this opportunity, she kicked the front of his head and used his body to swing herself around, knocking the other men out.

"_The Teen Titans are coming soon, stay here." She said and flew off, a calming violet following her._

"Damn, we're late again. We're sorry, ma'am," Robin said and helped her up. Robin and Raven were busy kicking the other men down and Cyborg was "transporting" them to the end of the city.

"It's okay, this lovely young lady helped me before you four arrived," The old lady said. "She looked likeâ€¦likeâ€¦well, she was purple!" She laughed and thanked the Titans, and went back inside at the Titan's suggestion.

"Well, I suppose we should get back to the tower- "Beast boy didn't finish what he was saying because of the purple streak in the dark sky.

"Starfire, follow that light!" Robin ordered. "Beast boy, make sure those men don't come back to this side of town,"

"Cyborg, get the van to the tower. I'll keep patrol of the city." Robin ordered and Starfire shot up in the air to follow the violent purple that seemed to fly in circles. 'Maybe the light didn't know how to fly?' She thought.

Starfire quickly caught up to the girl dressed in purple and she tried talking to her.

"Hey! Hello? Friend, it is just me! Starfi- WOAH!" Starfire nearly landed in front of a building, if it weren't for theâ€¦girl?

The pair landed on top of a building and Starfire asked

"Thank you, friend, who _are _you?" The girl decked in purple sat down and Starfire followed, thinking this was a game.

"My names Jo- Peridot." She grunted and rubbed her head.

"Well, Jo-Peridot, it's nice to meet you!" Starfire brought out her hand for Peridot to shake.

"No. Just call me Peri." Peri said sternly. "I know all about _you_, the _Teen Titans_." She growled and made Starfire a littleâ€¦scared.

"Well, aha, I suppose we'll have to bring you back to the Towerâ€¦" Starfire tried to get Peri to stand up but she just wasn't having it.

"No." She said sternly.

"But why? The tower is loads of fun! It's great with Beast Boyâ€¦" Starfire continued to list off the members of the titans but Peri's face flushed when she heard 'Beast Boy'.

"Peri? Are you feeling okay? Let's bring you back to the tower." Starfire held onto Peri's arm and flew off to the tower, Peri's mind was still in the gutter about BB.

The pair landed with a 'thud' on the floor, and Starfire gave a smile.

The door opened and Robin greeted Starfire with a warm smile and invited her in, leaving Peri at the door.

'Should Iâ€¦transform back into my civilian form?' She thought and brought her hand to the purple button on her belt, hid behind the wall and pressed it.

"Peridot?" Starfire asked, and looked around outside for her. She was nowhere to be seen.

"Star? Did you find the source of the purple light orâ€¦?" Robin asked Starfire as she stepped back inside.

"No, unfortunately I did not," she sighed.

>The next day, Peri was walking outside in her civilian form. A normal outfit. A dark hoodie, trousers, short brown hair and her 'Z' belt.

She hadn't of told any of her family about the Powerpuff incident yet, she was too scared to, so she tried to save Jump City by herself, trying to avoid the Teen Titans for about 2 years since the accident happened.

Unfortunately for her, they caught her. Well, it was a good run, two years isn't that bad!

At least, that's what she tried to tell herself.

"C'mon, Jo! Two years isn't bad! Justâ€¦decent enough, right?" She asked herself as she carried two heavy shopping bags filled with stuff for her family.

She groaned as the compact on her belt flashed a bright purple.

"FUCKIN HELL. Again, really?! CAN'T THE FUCKING TEEN FUCKING TITANS DO ANYTHNG FUCKING RIGHT? Now I have to stop EVERYTHING I'm fucking DOING and get there before THEY DO and DESTROY THE FUCKING MONSTER BEFORE THE FUCKING TITANS GET THERE, AND I HAVE TO PUT MY SHOPPING SOMEWHERE WHERE IT WON'T GET STOLEN OR LOST. FUCK. I HATE JUMP CITY."

Jo transformed, a pop ballad as her transformation music, and flew off into the direction of the monster.

"FUCKING FUCK. The _titans _are ALREADY HERE?!" She yelled and caught the attention of the youngest Titan, Beast boy. Thinking she hadn't, she hid behind a building and unsheathed a katana, just one.

She ran in the middle of the battle, and summoned her other katana and she swung them both at the monster, jumping up in the air and kicking the monster in the face.

The monster shrieked and fell to the floor.

She quickly hid behind the same building and steadied her breathing and let her weapons drop to the floor with a slight 'clunk'.

The katanas were a simple purple, just like the rest of her outfit, the only exception was the bright green gem in the middle of the handle that made it slightly uncomfortable to hold.

Peri jumped, making a 'wooshing' noise and landed on top of the building, keeping an eye on the four fighting the monster.

BB kept his eye on Peri while he was guarding something, and he swiped at the monster.

"This one's tough, keep it up guys!" Robin announced and used his birdarang at the monster's ankle, and that chopped it off, leaving the monster to topple over with a loud 'CRASH'.

Chuckling to herself, Peri landed on the floor dramatically, smoke coming from her boots. She ran towards the monster with her katana's in the air, glaring at it with determination in her body. She jumped and swung at it's head, leaving scratch marks everywhere.

The monster fell apart, it's insides leaking out onto the road floor.

Starfire shrieked and flew off in the opposite direction, chanting "EW EW EW EW" over and over again.

Raven just looked approvingly at the dead monster.

"Nice." She muttered and flew off back to the tower.

By the time Robin noticed the dead monster, Peri had flown off somewhere, probably going to retrieve her abandoned shopping on the floor next to a random persons house.

>"Fuck, that was hard," Peri landed in the same spot she flew off from, and retrieved her shopping. She transformed back into her civilian form and carried her load home, still somehow covered in the monster gunk from earlier.

Jo stepped outside of the house once more, her shopping put away, she put on new clothes (her 'Z' belt on top of everything, of course. The professor would KILL her if she left home without it, there would be no way to contact her!)

She took one look at the Titan's tower and decided to head up there slowly, wanting to reconcile with Starfire. She walked in the beat of her music player and headphones, she looked determined.

Before deciding to transform into her Powerpuff self, with her hand on the compact button, a voice stopped her.

"Going somewhere?" A small voice asked, and she saw someone leaning on the wall of the Teen Titans building.

"Yeah, who are you exactly?" She asked, her hand clamping down on the compact, taking it out of her belt.

"I'mâ€¦well, if you know everything about the Teen Titans already, you _know_ who I am."

That's it.

She never wanted anything to do with the teen titans again.

>CHAPTER ONE IS DONE. FUCK YEA.

Longest fucking chapter EVER.

Ugh.

If someone reads this and wishes to be my Beta, feel free to PM me your skype so I can do all the stuff that needs to be done, and..yeah XD

Well, have fun and please review!

2. Chapter 2

Chapter Two- The First Battle

Raven looked outside of the window of her bedroom in the Titans Tower and saw the familiar violet streak that invaded the dark night sky, and a small green body on top of a roof of a nearby building.

"Beast is in over his head again," She murmured and went back to meditating.

_Starfire wandered over to BB's bedroom and noticed the door was opened slightly. _

"_Beast boy?" She asked and opened the door more. _

"_Beast boy is missing?" She asked herself and went outside to look for him, flying in the air._

>"Peri, that's so COOL!" Beast said and leant back on the roof, leaning on his palms.

"Thanks, I've been flying like this for the pastâ€¦two years now? Ever since the explosion over at the Utonium Labs I was hit by a white light. It's a little confusing," She said as she landed on top of the same roof. Jump city was full of buildings that she could jump, fly across, and sit on.

"Why did you suddenly want to talk to me though, Beast?" Peri asked, wiping off some of her sweat on her forehead.

"Well, I justâ€¦wanted to know if you wanted to check out the Titan Towers with me later, I could show you aroundâ€¦you could meet Cyborg, Raven and Robinâ€¦" He scratched the back of his neck.

"Ah, sorry, I go solo with these things. To dangerous, y'know? I did this by myself for two years mate." Peri said and started floating.

"Yeah, but maybe it's time to finally be apart of a team?" Beast pleaded. "Sorry BB, I said no. I'm sticking to it." Peri thought for a moment and said

"Hey, do you wanna know an embarrassing story of me? Beforeâ€¦all of the Powerpuff stuff happened to me." She started.

Beast boy sniggered and said, "Powerpuffâ€¦that's hilarious!"

Peri smacked him on the side of the head. "Aye! I didn't chose the friggen name!" She snapped and sat back down, obviously annoyed at the green teenager's reaction.

"Well, I was aroundâ€¦17 when I found something lying on the side of the road. I'm 18 now." She started.

"I found a dog lying on the side of the road, he looked injured. I managed to pick him up despite my small size, and I brought him home. " Peri said and Beast looked a little nervous.

"He looked really ill, green at the face. My dad said he was gonna die, and to leave him on the side of the street for someone else to pick up. 'It's not our problem', he told me, but I took him inside of my bedroom and I fed him every day for a week, made sure he exercised, and he got better. It was weird, the dog was on it's deathbed and it suddenly got better. Maybe dogs really are the better animal?" She finished and sat on the ground of the building.

"Thatâ€¦is really an interesting storyâ€¦heh," Beast chuckled nervously with a blush tinted on his cheeks.

"Are you okay, Beast?" She asked and inched closer to him slowly.

"Beast boooooy!" Starfire's voice sounded close to the pair, and broke the intimate air.

"Beast boy! Robin was looking for you!" Starfire lied as she landed gracefully on top of the building the pair were sat on.

"Peri? You know Beast boy? This is most wonderful! I shall go tell the others immediately, and we can-"

"That won't be necessary, Starfire! Ahahaha," Beast interrupted Starfire's excited plans and wildly shook his hands.

"I ac-actually wanted to invite her over myself. Hah." Beast whispered to Starfire and she nodded, smiling happily.

"I shall go tell Robin and the others, they will be most glad to see you!" Starfire shot in the air excitedly and did a flip in the air, and flew towards the tower happily.

"_Beast boy,_ I told you I don't want to work in a team!" Peri said angrily and held a hand up to her forehead and rubbed it angrily.

"I need to work alone if I'm going to get any work done." Just then, her belt signalled a monster, a bright purple light emitting from her compact.

"Shit. Great. Fucking-" Peri shot in the air before she swore any more and ended up offending BB, and left a striking purple beam from her boots.

"well, maybe another time then," Beast muttered and went to the tower by himself.

>"There has been reports of a villain creating havoc in Jump City, a monster like we have never seen before. Luckily for us, the Teen Titans are aro- who's this? It seems as though a NEW hero has taken the spotlight! You might want to move your Teen Titan's posters and replace them withâ€¦the Powerpuff girls Z!" The announcer on the television blurted out the monster news announcement as Jo turned off the T.V.

"I haven't heard from Momoko at all latelyâ€¦" She murmured and played around with her cell phone while lying on the sofa, being bored, her legs dangling at the sides of the sofa.

"Who, your penpall?" Jo's mother asked as she brought in some clothes from outside she had previously washed.

"Yes. And Miyako, and Kaoru. It's so _boring _without them around anymoreâ€¦" She murmured to herself and pouted.

"Did you see about the Powerpuff Z?" Her mother asked and unfolded the laundry on the sofa on top of Jo.

"Yes. I'm _sick_ of hearing about superhero stuff. It's boring as hell, the hero's ALWAYS win in the end, mum. You know that." She grumbled and moved to the side of the sofa, her head facing away from the television.

"But those Teen Titans though. The green one _does _look like husband material." Her mother smirked and looked at her.

"Why do you say that?" Jo asked. "And it's _Beast _boy, haven't you read the comics?" She grumbled and smacked a pillow in her face.

"I'm just sayin, honey. One day he might give up 'superhero-ing' and want to find a nice wife. Or a husband. Whatever." Her mother packed up the clothes she was handling and went upstairs.

"And so the day is saved once again, thanks to the Powerpuff Girls Z!" The announcer finished and showed a shot of four girls standing proudly.

"Nyeh nyeh nyeh, Powerpuff nyeh." Jo grumbled.

She felt a familiar buzz at her stomach, signalling that a monster was attacking Jump City again. Groaning loudly, she slid off of the sofa and ran outside to see the ruckus.

Transforming, Peri headed up to the monster.

"FUCK! It's _you_. Fucking fuck!" She yelled at the monkey's face.

"Shouldn't you be in Tokyo or some shit?" Peri flew up to Mojo Jojo's face that was hidden within the metal structure of the robot.

"Ah, Mojo! A new city to take over, Mojo! Thenâ€¦.THE WORLD! â€¦Mojo." He said with a shit eating grin that dissolved when he saw the flying girl and the Teen Titans running behind her.

Peri unsheathed her Katanas from nowhere and struck at Mojo's robot's left arm, causing it to become unbalanced and topple over.

Peri landed safely onto the floor near the Titans to let them finish off the job for her.

"See? Isn't it better when you do this as a _team_?" BB asked as he swiped at Mojo who crawled out of the broken robot's debris.

"What IS this creature?" Robin asked and stared at the now knocked out Mojo Jojo.

"A creation of Chemical Z," Peri said and walked towards him with one katana at his face.

"A monster." She said darkly.

"Woah! No need to hurt the poor guy!" Beast said and walked over to Peri and tried to talk to her.

"He tried to hurt me and my team ma-" Peri stopped what she was saying because as far as Beast knew, Peri didn't like fighting with others.

"â€¦Team mates? You told me you wanted to go SOLO. You're already working in a team?" Beast boy asked, looking slightly hurt.

Okay. MORE than slightly hurt.

By now Mojo had ran away, leaving the robot to be abandoned and left for Cyborg to recover parts for further Teen Titans inventions.

"Periâ€¦you said you _weren't _going to be a part of the Teen Titans because you don't like working with a team." Beast said sternly.

"Which is it?" He asked and the remaining members stared at her, waiting for her answer.

"Okay. I'll be a member. But I still have to do my Powerpuff duties," Peri said and shook BB's hand in agreement.

"Okay. Justâ€¦let me know I'm not pushing you to join, cusâ€¦cus I'll feel like a douche. Y'know?" He asked with a strange look in his eyes.

"Uh, guysâ€¦" Raven said and looked up, pointing to the newer built Mojo Robo!

"MOJOOOOOOO! I have MANY more MOJO ROBO's in store for you _Teen Titans,_ I've heard about you, Mojo!"

He crashed one of the buildings using his giant arm and Peri shrieked as the hand clutched her body, lifting her up.

"Shit, can't getâ€¦FUCKING Katana's out!" She grunted and Mojo threw her small body over a few buildings, causing one to crack slightly.

Using this opportunity, she flew over to Mojo and swung her katanas she brought out and sliced the robot open and randomly unplugged the wires inside.

The robot finally fell over on top of the other one, and it landed with a loud CRASH like the last one did.

"Well, glad to have you on the team!" Robin said and helped Cyborg up from the double rubble that he was crushed under.

"Yeah, yeah. So, Where do you want me to go next?" Peri asked.

"Go on patrol of the city with Beast boy, and then we'll talk about all of the important stuff later." Robin finished and said, "You and Beast boy will be going onto the left side of the city while Raven and Starfire will be heading for the right side of the city, me and Cyborg will stay here in this direction and wait for the monkey to come back."

Great.

Two years and her whole superhero life _avoiding _the Teen Titans, and now she was a fricken MEMBER.

"So, when did you start fighting crime with the other Powerpuff girls?" Beast asked Peri as they landed on the beach, having a break from Patrolling.

"Two years ago. I told you that already." She said and lied down on the golden sandy beach, watching the clouds fly over Jump City.

"I just wanted to do my own thing, y'know? I just wanted to save the city at my pace in my own time. And yes, I AM a member of the Powerpuff Girls Z. But only when the other three are around.

They're still in Tokyo, protecting that." She grumbled.

"I had a NORMAL life in aâ€¦well I can't say normal city because of you guys and monsters and shit but let's just sayâ€¦"

"â€¦I kinda want my life back." Peri finished miserably and sighed.

"But protecting people is _so _worth it, Peri! Seeing the joy on citizens faces when they know they can walk the streets safely and happily, it warms our hearts. That's why we do this. THAT's why we have to do it! We're the Teen Titans. We're the saviours of Jump City. It's our duty." He said with pride and a smile on his face. He too lied back onto the shore of the beach and looked over at Peri who was silent throughout the entirety of the speech and waited for her reply.

"Heh, you said Doody."

â€¦that got her a slap on the head, just like a few nights ago.

Maybe being a member with Beast Boy won't be too hard.

3. Chapter 3

Chapter Three

>The next two months were filled with chores, fighting monsters, arguing with Beast boy, training, more training, and getting exhausted every day.

Peri leaned on a nearby balcony outside the tower and sighed as the wind swept over her hair and she looked down on the citizens walking past that she had decided to save.

"My dutyâ€¦" She murmured and didn't realize that someone had walked behind her.

"Heh, you said _doody_." Beast boy grinned and joined her by her side at the balcony. "So, what are you thinkin' about?" He asked and stared at Peri, noticing different things like how her brown hair collided greatly with her pale, generic faceâ€¦

"I justâ€¦what if this isn't the life I'm supposed to live?" She asked, gripping the handlebars and looking up to the sky. The sunlight hid behind the walls of a building, and Peri continued to talk.

"I was born as a simple human. Normal family, right? But then, everything changedâ€¦" Her words faded out as she loosened her grip.

"â€¦When the fire nation attacked?" Beast boy grinned and Peri hit him over the head. "No, you _jerk_!" She smirked.

"I just want to know if there's more to life than either being...'Super'â€¦or just plain normal. Look at those people down there, Beast. They have their own lives, like sheep." Peri waved her hand to the bottom of the ground to make an exaggeration.

"Being a Powerpuff girl is no different than being a normal human. But what _is_ being normal, anyway? Is being normal justâ€¦having two arms and two legs, two ears, eyes and a nose?" She sighed and began floating using her boots.

"Well, it depends on what people call 'different'. We've been different all our lives, Peri, and _that _is what makes us different from the normal people. The Teen Titans are here to protect people, not serve them. Our job is toâ€¦well, you'll have to figure it out!" Beast finished with a stupid shit eating grin that almost made Peri's heart melt.

"â€¦Shut up." Peri pouted.

"Hey, there's something I've been meaning to ask youâ€¦What's your real name?" Beast asked and inched a little closer.

"My name?" Peri asked, moving backwards. "It'sâ€¦wellâ€¦It'sâ€¦" She murmured.

"I hate my real name. It'sâ€¦_ugly_. Nobody likes a name like mine." Peri looked to the ground sadly.

"Come _on_, Peri! People don't hate people because of their names!" Beast pleaded. "Listen, if you tell me yours, I'll tell you mine first. Okay? I think we can trust each other enough now." Beast said and brought his hand out.

Peri hesitantly shook it slowly, while murmuring "Jo. It's stupidâ€¦" She sighed and tightened her grip on Beast boys.

"Now you have to tell me yours!" She snapped suddenly, her mood lightening up.

"It's Garfield." He smirked and rubbed his neck. "See? It wasn't that hard! _Jo_!" Beast sniggered and got smacked again.

"Garfieldâ€¦Hey, do you like lasagne?" She asked, grinning.

"Nah, I'm vegetarian, I hate eating other animals." Beast said.

"What are you two talking about over here?" Robin said as he walked swiftly outside to meet them.

"We're talking about eating dead meat," Beast shuddered and Peri giggled.

"Oh, okay. Hey, we've decided to take the day o- "Robin was interrupted by Starfire giggling and chuckling to herself.

"Oh, Peri! You must indulge in this wonderful comical booklet Raven showed me!" Starfire shoved the book in Peri's face and Raven floated in too.

"They're called the Whoopass girls. They reminded me of you." Raven said in a monotone voice. "Especially the pink one." She pointed to the pink girl with ginger hair, and a red bow on.

"What y'all reading?" Cyborg asked, walking over to them.

"Huh, she _does_look like Momokoâ€¦" Peri muttered. The group tried to huddle in to read the comic book Peri was holding.

"Turn the page, turn the page!" Beast boy whined and pushed Robin so he could read better. "Not yet! I haven't read this panel yet!" Peri said.

"And so, once again, the day is savedâ€¦.thanks to the Whoopass girls!" Peri announced and the sun had set over the five, a calming feeling washing over them.

Peri closed the book, and everyone went back inside. She looked over her shoulder at the bustling city getting ready for the night life, smiled and went back inside.

She closed the door behind her softly and sighed.
